A Special Declaration of Value helps to protect high-value items in your checked baggage by increasing Etihad's liability limits. In the rare event of loss or damage to your baggage, you'll be covered for up to USD 2,500 per guest.

Higher value declarations are only available for checked baggage on Etihad-operated flights and cannot be applied to carry-on items.

Please present this form at the check-in desk and keep it with you throughout your journey.

Terms and conditions

1. Special Declarations of Value are accepted only for Etihad operated flights and tickets issued by Etihad.
2. Declarations are not accepted if any part of the journey is operated by another carrier.
3. Etihad reserves the right to inspect declared items prior to departure.
4. Declarations are not accepted if baggage is through-checked by another airline.
5. Each declaration is valid for one continuous journey in one direction, including transfers but excluding stopovers.
6. Retain a copy of this form throughout your journey.
7. For each Special Declaration of Value, a supplementary fee (non-refundable) of USD 125 is applicable. Declaration values must exceed 1519 SDR and not exceed USD 2,500.
8. Etihad Conditions of Carriage and applicable government regulations apply.
9. If your baggage is delayed or damaged, please present your Special Declaration of Value form at a baggage counter.

Liability: Liability for checked baggage with a Special Declaration of Value and paid fee is limited to the declared value, subject to proof of loss, pilferage, or damage, and capped at USD 2,500.

By signing this Special Declaration of Value, I confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the above terms and conditions.
